Concern for Animals (CFA) offers humane traps for a 14 day rental period. The rental fee is free for the two weeks with a $60 deposit, cash or check. The deposit will be returned after the trap has been returned. There is an additional fee of $3 per day over the rental period paid cash or check only at the time of return and full deposit will be given back at that time, if cage is cleaned and in good, working condition. Deposits will not be refunded in the case of lost, damaged, or stolen traps. Failure to abide all the following agreements will result in the forfeiture of the trap and the return of the deposit. An additional $60 may be billed to the renter if the trap is rendered destroyed by means other than regular use. Please note: If you are requesting assistance to fund a spay/neuter procedure, authorization must be given ahead of time. Call CFA office at 360-456-8716, during business hours.

- The trap must be set on level ground so it will remain steady when the animal enters.
- The trap must be baited with fresh food every time. CFA does not reset nor provide food.
- When the animal is caught, you must take to vet for spay/neuter within 24 hours.
- All animals that are not intentionally caught will be immediately released on site.
- You must trap on a schedule prearranged with the vet doing the spay/neuter.
- Traps are not to be set if temperature is below 32 degrees or above 80 degrees.
- Under no circumstances are traps to be used as an aid for hunting.
- Any person abusing or neglecting a captured animal will be prosecuted.

I am aware that failure to abide with this agreement will result in a forfeiture of the trap and my deposit. I take full responsibility for the trap. In the event the trap is stolen, lost, or damaged, I agree to pay the full replacement cost to Concern for Animals.
